Alternate states and variables

One behavior change between 11.20 and 12.x has been high-lighted regarding Alternate states and variables; In QV11.20 the variable was expanded in the first state encountered and this resulted in a random behavior when more than one alternate state was being used. Whereas in version 12 and up, the variable always belongs to a specific alternate state and this results in different behavior. Full details on the implications and how to handle is described in a Support article, please contact Qlik Support if you need more information.

Document Chaining

With fix for bug QV-9687 in SR4 it is now required to have a full path for document chaining, if the documents are not in the same folder.

CAL quarantine period change clarification

The changed quarantine period from 24 hours to 7 days introduced in 12.10 IR applies both to named CALs and Document CALs.

Windows Defender

In Windows Server 2016, Windows Defender might lock QlikView files, we recommend excluding the "C:\ProgramData\QlikTech" folder from Windows Defender scans.

NPrinting 17.x and QlikView 12.10 compatibility

QlikView 12.10 SR1 is now compatible with NPrinting 17.2.1 and above. Container objects are currently not supported in NPrinting templates.

NPrinting add-on

Customers using the NPrinting add-on for on-demand printing, must re-install the add-on when doing an upgrade from 11.20 to 12.10.

Header injection protection

Since QlikView 12.00 SR5, protection against header injection attacks has been available. It is a QlikView Web Server feature, but is disabled by default. To enable it, change the value of the EnableHeaderChecking configuration option in QVWebServer.exe.config to TRUE. This configuration file can be found in Program Files/QlikView/Server/Web.

(Note: The pathname stated in the release notes for QlikView 12.10 were incorrect.)
